

WANDERIN' SOUL

1^{er} couplet :

One day a light caught my eye
It seemed to be a friend of mine
I wondered what it was looking for
From a young man without hope
It was just like a sudden craving
To escape from the tough reality
Towards another dimension
And find a place to warm me up

Refrain :

I was rising up
Through these undergrounds
Which had sheltered up
All those rabid hounds
I've been fighting up
'Til the final rounds
To reach up to the top
Near the Sons Of Sound

2^{ème} couplet :

Sometimes I wanna be alone
Far from my jail made of iron
I was seeking an asylum
To rest and find peace in the sun
Still, this path was hard to cross
A step in my life to fill a loss
I wanted to explore uncharted lands
Where all the choices will be in my hands

Refrain :

I was rising up
Through these undergrounds
Which had sheltered up
All those rabid hounds

I've been fighting up
'Til the final rounds
To reach up to the top
Near the Sons Of Sound

Fin :

(Sons Of Sound, Sons Of Sound,...)
